WINE THAT LOVES COMPANY

In ancient Greece the Sileni were companions of Dionysus, the god of wine, vineyards and theatre. When there was something to be celebrated, the Sileni were always on hand to encourage enjoyment of delicious food, great wine and social interaction. Named in their honour, Sileni Estates produces a range of wines made to be great collaborators, with a talent for enhancing flavours and textures.

VINEYARD

Only made in exceptional vintages, this wine was sourced from selected parcels across Hawke's Bay, with a range of soil types, including gravels, silt and clay loam. The different characteristics of these sites providing depth and complexity of flavour in the wine.

WINEMAKING
NOTES

Fruit is hand harvested and whole bunch pressed, then fermented in French oak barriques to develop complex layers of flavour in a traditional Burgundian style. Following the primary and full malolactic fermentations, the wine is left to mature on gross lees in barrel for ten months prior to bottling.
